Slowly

This land is mine, God gave this land to me, This brave and an-cient land to me. And when the morn-ing sun re-veals her hills and plains, Then I see a land where chil-dren can run free. So take my hand and walk this land with me, And walk this {love-ly gold-en} land with me, Tho' I am just a man— When you are by my side, with the help of God I know I can be strong. So strong. To make this land our home— If I must fight— I'll fight to make this land our own— Un-til I die— this land is mine!

Moderato

Peo-ple, peo-ple who need peo-ple— Are the luck-i-est peo-ple in the world—We're chil-dren— need-ing oth-er chil-dren— And yet, let-ting our grown up pride, Hide all the need inside, Act-ing more like chil-dren, than chil-dren— Lov-ers— are ve-ry spec-ial peo-ple— They're the luck-i-est peo-ple in the world— With one per-son—
— One-ve-ry spe-cial per-son— A feel-ing deep in your soul— says, you were half, now you're whole—
— No more hun-ger and thirst, But first, be a per-son who needs peo-ple— Peo-ple who need peo-ple— Are—the luck-i-est peo-ple in the world— world.
