NOTE

Il Concerto per due Oboi, archi e continuo RV 535¹ è conservato nella Biblioteca Nazionale di Torino, fondo “Foà”, vol. 32, cc. 269r–282v. Il manoscritto, autografo, di formato formato oblunghi, reca in alto, al centro di c. 269r il titolo: “Con.^{lo} con 2 Hautbois”. A destra, in alto, sulla stessa pagina, vi è l’indicazione dell’autore: “Del Vivaldi”. Il primo movimento, “Largo”, occupa le cc. 269r–269v; il secondo “All.^o” le cc. 270r–275r; il terzo, “Largo”, le cc. 275v–276r; l’ultimo, “All.^o molto”, le cc. 276v–282v. Su ogni pagina sono tracciati 10 pentagrammi. Nelle pagine che ospitano il primo, il secondo e il quarto movimento sono stati lasciati vuoti i primi due e gli ultimi due pentagrammi di ogni pagina, mentre la musica occupa i sei pentagrammi centrali, uniti in un unico sistema da una parentesi graffa posta a sinistra. Nelle pagine che ospitano il terzo tempo, sono stati utilizzati i primi 9 pentagrammi (l’ultimo in basso è vuoto), uniti in sistemi da tre pentagrammi mediante graffe.

La data della composizione resta incerta, ma deve essere posteriore al 1724. Vivaldi infatti da quell’epoca indica il tempo ternario mediante il solo numeratore 3, consuetudine presente anche in questo manoscritto (I mov., c. 269r e III mov., c. 275v)². L’organico prevede 2 oboi, due violini, viola e basso. Gli strumenti ad arco, che costituiscono l’organico consueto dell’orchestra dell’epoca, non sono indicati esplicitamente, mentre i due strumenti solisti sono segnalati all’inizio di ogni movimento mediante la dicitura “2 Hautbois”, posta a sinistra, fra i due pentagrammi ad essi relativi. Nei punti in cui intervengono i “ripienisti” dell’orchestra Vivaldi pone l’indicazione “Tutti” sotto la linea del basso, mentre quando interviene il solo continuo avverte: “Violon.^{lo} solo”.

NOTES

Source

The autograph manuscript of the concerto RV535¹ is preserved in Torino, Biblioteca Nazionale, “Foà”, vol. 32, fols. 269r–282v, oblong format. On folios 269r (top center) there is the title: “Con.^{to} con 2 Hautbois”. At the top right: “Del Vivaldi”. The music is notated on fols 269r–269v (first mov. – “Largo”), fols 270r–275r (second mov. – “All.^o”), fols 275v–276r (“third mov. – Largo”), fols 276v–282v (fourth mov. – “All.^o molto”). On each page there are 10 staves. The music of the movements 1, 2 and 4 is notated on the six central staves whereas the first two and the last two are void. The movement 3 is notated on the nine first staves (3 system for page) whereas the last is void.

The only indication for the dating is the $\frac{3}{4}$ and $\frac{3}{8}$ time signature, that appear in this source (fols 269r and fols 275v) as a large numerator 3. Invariably Vivaldi uses this kind of indication from c. 1724 onwards.².

Editorial method employed in this edition

1. Notational practice has been modernised.
2. Resolutions of abbreviations and corrections of mistakes are mentioned in the Critical Notes when not evident from the score itself.
3. Omitted, but essential, accidentals are inserted and mentioned in the Critical Notes.
4. The arrangement of the parts and clefs are as in the source
